Play Submission Form

Submission deadline for 2012 season: August 12, 2011

Thank you for submitting a play for consideration by the Camden Civic Theatre (CCT) membership for the 2012 season.

Please complete this form with as much information as you have at the present time. The CCT board will review your information at the August 15 board meeting and determine if your production will be included on the 2012 season slate for vote by the membership. A board member will contact you with the board's decision. If your play proposal is selected, please plan to attend the membership meeting Sept 17 to present your concept to the members prior to their vote on the season slate.
